Welcome to the ALCO Group of Companies.

You were chosen to join the team ~~only~~ after a careful selection process ~~which~~ indicated ~~that~~ you were the best applicant to fill the position. (Thank you for choosing our company for your future career.) We trust that your stay with us will ~~prove to~~ be happy, satisfying and of benefit to both you and the company.

This company, like any other corporate organisation in our society, is profit oriented.

By all of us pulling together as a team and contributing our top effort to our individual jobs we will create a profitable company and we all benefit accordingly.

We had small beginnings from 1931, first as W.A. Salvage Company and soon after bought the Australian Lumber Company, situated in Roe Street, West Perth, in 1944. Since then, we have expanded because our business has been profitable. We have also diversified into the manufacture of transportable houses and Gang-Nail roof trusses.

There have been big changes initiated by people in the ALCO Group of Companies. They have been conscious of the changing world around them and the need for the services we provide to keep abreast of changing social and economic demands. As a result this is
